BROOKLYN COLSE THE FIRST GAME.

Pittsburg Pirates Batted Out Two Runs and Victory in Last Inning.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, Sept. 1.—Ned Ahlman's Superbas played at home to-day after an absence of two weeks or more. They tackled the champion Pittsburg team in two games before big crowds. Tom McCreery, who was released some time ago, played first base, his old position, for Brooklyn, and got a rousing reception.

In the first game, with Brooklyn on run to the good in the beginning of the ninth inning the Pittsburg batters got at Donovan's curves and pounded out two runs of the earned variety. Leach and Wagner singled, Tannehill supplied a sacrifice and Burke's long hit to right brought in both the tying and winning runs, as the home team could not get a man as far as second base in the latter half of the final inning.
